AEGLE RENEWS ITS COMMITMENT TO SAFETY BEST PRACTICES

21 OCTOBER 2020, HONG KONG – Aegle Aviation has once again committed to safety best practices through its successful renewal of the IS-BAO Stage Two certification.

Ms. Joyce Kee, AEGLE CEO, thanked the team of auditors and the International Business Aviation Council (IBAC), given that this renewal was unlike previous audits given the pandemic. “Safety culture is of paramount importance for our organization. With the pandemic and restrictions still in place, our team has worked relentlessly to ferry our clients and their loved ones home safely, and it is attributed to our very experienced colleagues, the team works and the safety management system we have in place.”

The International Standard for Business Aircraft Operations (IS-BAO), developed by the International Business Aviation Council (IBAC) and its member associations, is a recommended code of best practices designed to help operators worldwide achieve high levels of safety and professionalism.

Notes to Editors

About AEGLE Aviation

AEGLE Aviation was established in Hong Kong, specializing in business jet operations and charters, technical consultancy including aircraft refurbishments, business jets purchase, aircraft delivery advisory; aircraft registration and certification, and other related services. AEGLE also has an Aruban charter certificate to provide business jet charter services, allowing a safe and private way to travel.

The AEGLE team has an extensive track record in managing business jets for re-known high net worth individuals around Asia, and has received many positive word-of-mouth and referrals from businessmen, who recommend to their friends about Aegle services. Collectively the Aegle team has decades of experience and more importantly hopes to bring about a positive perception change about the way business jet should be managed, to make it a positive and hassle-free experience for the aircraft owners.

AEGLE (Ancient Greek: Αἴγλη) symbolizes 'Brightness' and 'Splendor' like a diamond in Greek mythology, signifying the '6-star diamond' service promise AEGLE has made to its clients.

The AEGLE Aviation stakeholders believe that there is a growing need for both genuine and bespoke service for business jets owners and the AEGLE team is fully committed to this vision.
